BURNS AND SALLEE PLAYED

IN PREVIOUS SERIES New York, Oct. 3.—Only two of the New York Giants of 1921 who are elegiin the world's series have the team in previous postseason inter-major league championships. These are George Burns, one of the ca-pable outfielders of the McGraw organization and H. V. (Silm) Sallee, pitch-

However, Chance was one of the select few who led their teams to world series victory on two occasions. In 1967 and 1908 his Cubs turned back Hughie Jennings' Detroits. Chance's outfit was defeated in the series of 1906 by Manager Jones' Chicago White Sox. The Cubs were worfully weak in that series, taking into consideration the fact they had set a new record for games won in winning the National League pennant.

George Burns was purchased by the Giants in 1912 and though he played in a number of games was not seen in the world's series. The following year, however, when the Giants were defeated in the post-season classic by the Athletics Burns played and performed well. In the 1917 series against the Cubs he fielded perfectly and his batting average was 227.

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET Chicago, Oct. 3.—Bullish views regard-ing the domestic visible supply figures and about the amount of wheat on ocean pas-sage led to a sudden upturn today in the price of wheat. The market closed nervous at 1-2 to 1 cent net higher with December 1.18 1-4 to 1.18 1-2 and May 1.23 1-4 to 1.23 1-2. Corn gained 3-8 to 3-4 a 7-8 and oats 1-4 to 3-8. In provisions the outcome was unchanged to 12 cents higher.

In the beginning the wheat market showed considerable depression with bears putting stress on the apparent absence of any new export business and on preof any new export numers and on pre-dictions of a liberal enlargement of the United States visible supply. Later, how-ever the market developed notable strength, largely as a result of correct anticipation that the increase expected in the visible supply would be much small-er than was the case a week ago. On the other hand, profit taking sales in et half hour wiped out a good part of the day's advance. day's advance.

Surprise over a shrinkage in the vis-ble supply of corn helped to rally the corn market. Earlier, December corn had sold at the lowest pice yet this season. Oats merely reflected the changes in wheat and corn.

Provisions averaged higher with hogs an das a result of some decrease in the stock of lard.
